Safe operations. Dependable delivery. Open communication.

About Us

RC 2018901

ASANTI SHORES LIMITED is a Nigerian marine services company that supplies vessels, crews, provisions, fuel, equipment and underwater support to ship owners, operators and the oil and gas industry from a single point of contact.

The company was incorporated on 12 January 2023 as a private company limited by shares under the Companies and Allied Matters Act 2020 (RC 2018901), and is registered with the Corporate Affairs Commission of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

Our offering covers seven connected service lines. Clients deal with one company for the full vessel support chain, which cuts coordination time and keeps accountability clear.

We work to a simple standard: safe operations, dependable delivery and open communication from the first enquiry to the final invoice.

OUR EXPERTISE

- Ship and crew management
- Ship chandling
- Marine equipment sales and supply
- Bunker supply and fresh water
- Underwater services

If a notice of intended forfeiture is not complied with before the date by which payment of the call is equired in the notice of intended forfeiture, the directors may decide that any share in respect of which it was ven is forfeited, and the forfeiture is to include all dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the feited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

ffect of forfeiture

(1) Subject to the articles, the forfeiture of a share extinguishes—

a. all interests in that share, and all claims and demands against the company in respect of it, and
b. all other rights and liabilities incidental to the share as between the person whose share it was prior to the forfeiture and the company.

) Any share which is forfeited in accordance with the articles—

a. is deemed to have been forfeited when the directors decide that it is forfeited;
b. is deemed to be the property of the company; and
c. may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of as the directors think fit.

) If a person's shares have been forfeited—

a. the company must send that person notice that forfeiture has occurred and record it in the register of members;
b. that person ceases to be a member in respect of those shares;
c. that person must surrender the certificate for the shares forfeited to the company for cancellation;
d. that person remains liable to the company for all sums payable by that person under the articles at th date of forfeiture in respect of those shares provided that his liability ceases when the company receives payment in full of all money in respect of the shares; and
e. the directors may waive payment of such sums wholly or in part or enforce payment without any allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture or for any consideration received on t disposal.

) At any time before the company disposes of a forfeited share, the directors may decide to cancel the feiture on payment of all calls and interest due in respect of it and on such other terms as they think fi

ocedure following forfeiture

(1) If a forfeited share is to be disposed of by being transferred, the company may receive the nsideration for the transfer and the directors may authorise any person to execute the instrument of t A statutory declaration by a director or the company secretary that the declarant is a director or the mpany secretary and that a share has been forfeited on a specified date—

b. subject to compliance with any other formalities of transfer required by the articles or by law, constitutes a good title to the share.

(3) A person to whom a forfeited share is transferred is not bound to see to the application of the consideration (if any) nor is that person's title to the share affected by any irregularity in or invalidity of the process leading to the forfeiture or transfer of the share.
(4) If the company sells a forfeited share, the person who held it prior to its forfeiture is entitled to receive from the company the proceeds of such sale, net of any commission, and excluding any amount which—

a. was, or would have become, payable, and
b. had not, when that share was forfeited, been paid by that person in respect of that share, but no interest is payable to such a person in respect of such proceeds and the company is not required to account for any money earned on them.

Surrender of shares

(1) A member may surrender any share to the company as a gift
(2) The directors may accept the surrender of any such share.
(3) The effect of surrender on a share is the same as the effect of forfeiture on that share.
(4) A share which has been surrendered may be dealt with in the same way as a share which has been forfeited.

Procedure for Declaring Dividends

(1) The company may by ordinary resolution declare dividends, and the directors may decide to pay interim dividends.
(2) A dividend must not be declared unless the directors have made a recommendation as to its amount. Su a dividend must not exceed the amount recommended by the directors.
(3) No dividend may be declared or paid unless it is in accordance with shareholders' respective rights.
(4) Unless the shareholders' resolution to declare or directors' decision to pay a dividend, or the terms on which shares are issued, specify otherwise, it must be paid by reference to each shareholder's holding of shares on the date of the resolution or decision to declare or pay it.
(5) If the company's share capital is divided into different classes, no interim dividend may be paid on sh carrying deferred or non-preferred rights if, at the time of payment, any preferential dividend is in arrear (6) The directors may pay at intervals any dividend payable at a fixed rate if it appears to them that the p available for distribution justify the payment. (7) If the directors act in good faith, they do not incur any liability to the holders of shares conferring preferred rights for any loss they may suffer by the lawful payment of an interim dividend on shares with deferred or non-preferred rights.
